DETAILED ACTION

Claims 35-98 are pending and have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 67-98 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The independent claims recite software per se. The dependent claims do not correct the deficiencies.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 36, 37, 39, 40, 57-66, 68, 69, 71, 72 and 89-98 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 36 and 37 recite with "the byte code" limitation, which should be "the initial byte code", otherwise the claims lack antecedent basis.

Claim 39 recites "the source code". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation.

Claim 40 recites "the method" (line 2). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation.

As to claims 57-66, wherein claim 57 recites "the initial byte code with calls" (line 9) should be "the initial byte code representation with calls byte code"; and wherein claim 57 recites "the additional byte code" (line 11) should be "the calls byte code", otherwise the claim lacks antecedent basis. Claims 58-66 are also rejected as being dependent on a rejected base claim.

Claim 66 recites "the source code". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation.

Claims 68, 69, 71, 72 and 89-98 correspond to claims 36, 37, 39, 40, 57-66 and are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112 in a corresponding manner.

Double Patenting

5. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

6. Claims 35-66 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-32 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,314,558. This is a double patenting rejection.

7. Claims 67-98 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-32 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,643,842. This is a double patenting rejection.

8. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

9. Claims 67-98 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-32 of U.S. Patent No. 6,314,558 B1 (Angel et al). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed subject matter contains obvious modifications to previous claims 1-32 of the Angel '558 patent.

10. Claims 67-98 are merely computer program product versions of claims 1-32 in the Angel '558 patent and such computer program products are well known and commonly practiced in the computer product. Accordingly such claimed limitations would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made.

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

Fortin et al. (USPN 6,263,488) disclosed instrumenting software after it is loaded onto a system (column 2, lines 62-65).
